GETTING TO US

Coaches may drop off/pick up the group in Huntingdon Bus Station, less than 2 minutes walk from the Museum. The nearest car park is behind the Museum on St Germain Street (pay and display). The Museum is about 8 minutes' walk from Huntingdon Railway Station, which is on the East Coast line with regular trains from King's Cross and Peterborough.

FACILITIES

Toilet facilities are available for schools use in Huntingdon Town Hall, opposite the Museum on a pedestrianised street. Secure bag storage and lunchroom facilities are also available in the Town Hall.

HOW TO BOOK

To book, contact our learning team on 01480 702216 or email learning@cromwellmuseum.com. We welcome planning visits for staff at no additional charge.

ABOUT THE CROMWELL MUSEUM

The Cromwell Museum holds the best collection of objects relating to the life and times of Oliver Cromwell on public display in the world. The collection consists of over 800 items, including personal items belonging to him and his family, portraits, arms and armour, and historical documents written by or about Cromwell.

Oliver Cromwell (1599 – 1658) is one of the most important figures in British history. As a result of the British Civil Wars of the mid-17th century he became a soldier and a statesman of lasting fame and influence. He is the only commoner ever to have been the head of state in England. Cromwell is still a very controversial figure in British history, hated by some, held as a great man by others. The Museum tells his story 'warts and all', and invites visitors to make their own minds up about him.

Learning Programme

Why visit us?

How did Oliver Cromwell rise from humble origins in Huntingdonshire to shape the history of an entire country? Was he a hero or a tyrant? Did he really cancel Christmas?

Discover who Cromwell really was, behind the myths, in our programme of engaging workshops and resources led by our experienced and knowledgeable staff and costumed re-enactors.

Whether you visit the Museum, borrow a loan box, or bring us into your classroom virtually, your students will examine original objects, paintings, and documents in our unique collection to learn about local history, society and culture in the 17th century, the history of democracy and parliament in Britain, the Interregnum and Ireland, and more.

Workshops

KEY STAGE 3

History

Who was Oliver Cromwell? – Become historians in our most popular workshop and examine original objects, portraits, and documents. Find out how Oliver Cromwell became one of the most important historical figures in Britain and examine the evidence behind his most infamous controversies.

Civil War! – Why was there a Civil War in Britain? Discover the causes and events of the Civil Wars and find out what life was like for those who fought in them. Examine original arms and armour, handle replica items and meet a civil war soldier.

Cromwell's Huntingdon – Retrace Oliver Cromwell's steps through historic Huntingdon! Discover what Huntingdon was like during Cromwell's childhood and see how it has changed since then.

Art and Design

Pictures of the Past – What do portraits tell us about people from the past? Examine our remarkable collection of 17th century portraits to find the clues about the people in them. Then, create your own portrait in your sketchbook.

GCSE AND A-LEVEL

History

Discussing Cromwell – Tour the Museum and analyse original artefacts, paintings, and documents, then participate in a Q&A and discussion session with our Curator and other experts. Topics can include: the life of Oliver Cromwell; his role in the Civil War and the trial and execution of Charles I; the Protectorate; Ireland; the short and long term legacy of Cromwell and the Civil Wars.

Discussing the Civil Wars – Discuss the causes, events, and short and long-term impacts of the British Civil Wars in this talk and Q&A session hosted by our Curator. Topics can include: the road to war (including the role of social, political, and religious divisions); the creation and importance of the New Modelled Army; the subjugation of Ireland; imperial expansion and the Western Design; the Commonwealth; the Protectorate; the Restoration.

The Huntingdon Witch Trials – Huntingdon is known as the witch trial capital of England, with witch trials occurring in the 16th, 17th, and 18th centuries. In this talk and Q&A session hosted by our Curator, explore the history of witchcraft beliefs and witch-hunting in England, Matthew Hopkins and the East Anglian 'witch craze' in the 1640s, and the Huntingdon witch trials.

Alternate topics can include Huntingdon's history, Crime and Punishment (using the 17th century courtrooms in Huntingdon Town Hall), or careers in Museums, Heritage Management and Tourism.

'The students enjoyed the virtual workshop! They got a lot out of it and found the information really clear and it very much tied into their current unit on witchcraft.'
– Sixth Form Teacher

Topic Packs

KEY STAGE 3

History

Who is Oliver Cromwell? Loan Box – Explore who Oliver Cromwell was by exploring and interpreting artefacts, sequencing events on a timeline, and learning how our knowledge of the past is constructed from sources. This loan box contains replica objects, documents, and lesson plans.

Who is Oliver Cromwell? Classroom Video – Who was Oliver Cromwell, and what can the objects in our collection tell us about him? This video is a fully facilitated lesson on Oliver Cromwell's life and legacy, accompanied by a worksheet and suggestions for follow up activities.

'We really enjoyed using the loan box in lessons to help bring the past alive to the students, and the pupils seemed to really enjoy working independently to learn more about the life of Cromwell!'
– Year 8 Teacher

GCSE AND A-LEVEL

History

Oliver Cromwell: Warts and All - Join our Curator in this series of free bite-sized videos designed to support lessons on Cromwell and the Civil War. Topics: whether Cromwell was 'king in all but name', the Battle of Naseby, and Cromwell's contested legacy.

'All People One': The Putney Debates – Created in partnership with the UK Parliamentary Archives to commemorate the 375th anniversary of the Putney Debates, this free resource uses primary sources to examine the emergence of political and religious radicalism in 1640s, politicisation of the New Modelled Army, and the events and legacy of the historic Putney Debates.
